A photograph of the Kingston Penitentiary, a large stone building with a central portico supported by columns and a prominent cupola on top. The building is surrounded by greenery, including trees and manicured bushes. In the foreground, there is a stone balustrade and a large stone planter filled with colorful flowers. A black lamppost stands near the entrance. The sky is overcast.

KP – Next Steps

- City trying to negotiate a multi-year agreement/lease with the Federal government to secure year round and multi use access.
- An agreement is required in early March in order to secure public tours for the May – October 2020 time frame.
- Federal government plan still includes disposition of property in the long term.
